

If the changes are successful, great we'll leave them. If not, we'll adjust them or remove them and try something different.

UPDATED

Let's make our

STREETS FOR PEOPLE

You told us you want us to make streets safer for kids to get to school, and create a network to make it easier for people walking and cycling to get around town.

That's why, in November last year, we asked you to identify areas on our streets where a change was needed to make this a reality.

More than 220 of you pointed out areas where there was a lack of safe pedestrian crossing points, narrow footpaths and where cars typically speed.

Using that feedback, we've selected a range of temporary measures to trial at over 25 different locations across the Streets for People network.

From February, we'll start implementing these temporary changes to see which are successful at helping us make our streets safer and easier to use.

We'll try things such as

To make this project a success, we need your help to see whether the measures we are trialling are doing what we want them to do.

You can let us know what you think of each change by heading to www.streetsforpeople.nz or by aiming your smart phone camera at this QR code.
